SUBJECT: 2017 Medical Expense Percentages

This letter is being provided to residents who, during the calendar year 2017, paid all or part of their entrance fee.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) allows residents of continuing care retirement communities, such as The Highlands at Wyomissing, to treat a portion of their Monthly Service Fees as a medical expense (subject to the 7.5% limitation found in Internal Revenue Service (IRC) Section 213). A similar allowance is extended to the Entrance Fee as a one-time deduction in the year of payment.

This year, Rice CPA, Independent Certified Public Accountant, reviewed The Highlands at Wyomissing's revenues, expenses, and operations to determine what portion of the Monthly Service Fees and Entrance Fee paid in 2017 can be treated as a deductible medical expense.

The IRS's determination was affirmed in a court case listed here for your reference: Delbert L. and Margaret J. Baker v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, 122 T.C. 143 (2004). Accordingly, Rice CPA has calculated the deductible amount applicable for each residential accommodation. Please refer to the attached schedule to assist you in your tax return preparation.

In order to determine the appropriate medical expense portion attributable to Entrance Fees paid, the applicable percentage should be multiplied against the Entrance Fees paid in 2017.

THE METHODOLOGY PRESCRIBED BY LAW TO ASCERTAIN THESE MEDICAL EXPENSE DEDUCTIONS IS NOT CLEAR OR SETTLED. THUS, THE PERCENTAGES NOTED ON THE ATTACHED PAGES ARE SUBJECT TO AUDIT, REVIEW, AND DISALLOWANCE BY THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.
